

Ten Generations [E, 122 bpm, 6/8]

[Default Arrangement] by Will Duvall, Jessica Waterman

(band swell in): A A

INTRO (big): E A C#m A (diamond beat 4)

VERSE 1 (down):

Oh lord I've seen you move in this city
The wounded find healing The restless find peace
I've seen the broken get mended stony hearts softened
Faith come alive and captives released

PRE:

O Lord you've been our dwelling place
So until you return we will pray

CHORUS:

In ten generations They'll still be singing
O thank you Jesus, I've been redeemed
In ten generations They'll still believe that
Jesus gives grace to the humble
And rest for the weary
So Lord show us today
Your work, that your name would be praised
(TO TURN)
In ten generations

TURN: E A C#m A

VERSE 2:

Lord you've been building Here in your people
A refuge for sinners A culture of grace
(build)
So won't you establish By the power of your spirit
The work of our hands So our children's children

CHORUS + TURN

BRIDGE (down):

Help us to trust beyond what we can see
Faithful you've been and faithful you'll be
Give us the strength to stand firm and believe
Faithful you've been and faithful you'll be

(building)

Help us to trust beyond what we can see
Faithful you've been and faithful you'll be
Give us the strength to stand firm and believe
Faithful you've been and faithful you'll be
We believe, we believe

CHORUS (down):

In ten generations They'll still be singing
O hallelujah, I've been redeemed

(up)

In ten generations They'll still be singing
O thank you Jesus, I've been redeemed
In ten generations They'll still believe that
Jesus gives grace to the humble
And rest for the weary
So Lord show us today
Your work, that your name would be Praised
